Dear provider Helena Oliveira,

We are pleased to inform you that your application for European accreditation for

Event title: 35th European Congress of Cytology

Venue: Lisbon

Date : 27.9.2009 - 30.9.2009

was granted 15 European CME credits (ECMEC) by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME).

Your event will now be posted on the EACCME homepage.

European Accreditation

European Accreditation is granted by the EACCME in order to allow participants who attend the above-mentioned activity to validate their credits in their own country.

Accreditation Statement

Accreditation by the EACCME confers the right to place the following statement in all communication materials including the registration website, the event programme and the certificate of attendance. The following statements must be used without revision:

The 'SPC' is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) to provide the following CME activity for medical specialists. The EACCME is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS), www.uems.net.

The '35th European Congress of Cytology' is designated for a maximum of (or 'for up to') 15 hours of European external CME credits. Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

EACCME credits are recognized by the American Medical Association towards the Physician's Recognition Award (PRA). To convert EACCME credit to AMA PRA category 1 credit, contact the AMA.

EACCME credits

Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity. The EACCME credit system is based on 1 ECMEC per hour with a maximum of 3 ECMECs for half a day and 6 ECMECs for a full-day event.

Logo

The UEMS – EACCME logo is a service mark of the European Union of Medical Specialists – European Accreditation Council for CME. This service mark may be used publicly only with the permission of the UEMS – EACCME. The logo may only be used in conjunction with, and in proximity to, the EACCME accreditation statement. The logo cannot be used in notices, advertising, or promotion of activities other than in association with the EACCME accreditation statement.

Feedback report

The EACCME requires you to provide a feedback report of the event within four weeks of its completion together with a copy of the list of participants and the results of the individual feedback assessments by participants.
